

WARD CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH.

1120 Woodland Ave.
All the services were well attended. Rev. Horsey preached two able sermons. There were two additions at the morning services. Rev. Horsey read his Conference report, which was very encouraging. The Sunday School was filled with enthusiasm. Though the attendance was good, we missed those who were absent. We hope they will be out next Sunday. Mrs. Lillian Smith, teacher of Class No. 3, is preparing to give a Halloween entertainment for the Senior Stewardess Board. Sister Laura Jackson, president. The Endeavor is progressing nicely. We urge every member and friend to attend the Endeavor whenever it is convenient at 6:30 p. m. Brother A. U. Davis, Pres. Mrs. Mary Howard, Miss Alvertha Steward, Mrs. Marie Waters, Mrs. Minnie Hunter and Mrs. Jeanette Davis are on the sick list. We were glad to see rs. Easie Royland able to be out again. The dinner the Junior Stewardess Board served at the church last Saturday proved quite a success.

Chess meeting last Wednesday night was well attended. Rev. Rivers and Rev. Wright were present, also several other visitors. Brother C. J. Skinner, who has been so faithful in the past, was greatly missed. He was appointed to St. Paul at 14th and Spruce. We wish him much success. We will hold a ten days' Meeting beginning next Sunday. Everybody is invited to attend and assist us in our efforts. Quite a few were out Monday night to the special meeting and fifteen of those present pledged themselves to pay 5.00 a month to help reduce our principle debt. The Busy Bee Club will meet Thursday night at Mrs. Francis' 1011 Vine street. The Lifters Club met with Mrs. Nettie Dorsey last Thursday night. Mrs. C. C. Ridley and Mrs. C. E. Wheatley are visiting in St. Louis. Mrs. Luther Oliver and Mrs. William Oliver are at home after a pleasant visit with relatives.

There is Hope for All.

I don't know who you are, or where you are, or what you may be, there is always that divine privilege of being something if you choose. How oft has someone touched the very bottom of hopelessness and despair, becoming wrecks, derelicts upon the screen of human experience. Yet there is hope, there is redemption, but it simply must be in a renewed sense of manhood or womanhood as the case may be. Of course if you follow the old paths or seek the old haunts; if you love the old things, and hug the old delusions you are bound to react to the old state. It is inevitable, you cannot escape the inexorable, uncompromising fate.

In seeking a reform remember that it is not circumstance nor environment that changes or regenerates the being, but it is Mind and Mind only. Oh why can't we be strong, created, as we think, in the image of something strong and noble? Why can't we reflect this strength instead of forever discovering weakness? These questions are baffling! Yet we know that if we follow Good, Good is what we get. Yes, we get what we sow, and often what others sow for us. This has been true down the ages.

But we yet have hope because we have the grand privilege of sowing again, of cultivating over, and using wiser and scientific methods. And this is what will save. There is no such thing as being too late. We have learned that it is Mind that does the work, and since Mind is immortal, so the Truth is necessarily held out to man eternally. Man must learn this Truth, sometime, someday, somewhere, he must be free. He must be collectively free because inasmuch as there can not be any mistake in mathematics, neither can so much money must go into the white man's hand. That is what they say. And they are right. The day when Negroes can finance and successfully promote their own affairs without calling in the aid of the grating whites is the day that a member of this, that and the other lodge may justly feel proud of his own.

FOOD FOR FANS.

We wonder sometimes if our readers do not get tired of us trying to reveal in an humble way the thought waves or workings of psychology. Last week we attempted to show certain psychological influences that Negro league baseball had upon the Negro fan. Since then we have noticed more food for thought along the ways of psychology. By an already established psychology of the other fellow the subjective mind of the Negro has been influenced to believe, and so state that the class of all the major leagues play is impossible for the Negro to reach. But the objective mind of the Negro, bold and positive because it has observed signal mental and physical prowess on the part of Negro players, insists that high class major league ball is highly possible for Negro teams. The Monarchs demonstrated this fact in the three games they played against possibly the best team in the world today. The All Stars beat them and that is all. You cannot get Negro fans to believe that they were outclassed. We leave it to the wisecracks and know-it-alls to prove the negative. Most fans who viewed Sunday's game are of the opinion that the spoils went, not to the victor but rather to recipients of Anglo Saxon favor from the white gent who arbitrates the contests. Be that as it may, anyone truly interested in Negro baseball might say with reasonableness, after seeing the last games: "I see and am satisfied!" (Quotation from Kelly Miller.)

In Memoriam

In loving memory of John T. Watkins who passed away October 11, 1917.

"There is a link death cannot sever,
Love and remembrance last forever,
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they will wipe out never."

The memory of those happy days
When we were all together;
Three lonely years have passed away;
Since our great sorrow fell
Yet in our hearts we mourn
The loss of the dear one we loved so well.
